

#OFMonline2021 Programme

PROGRAMME: The programme each day will be delivered live on ZOOM, or shown on our Youtube channel at the time indicated. All the links you need are included in the programme below. You can also 'catch up' on pre-recorded content on our YouTube channel at <http://bit.ly/OFMonline>

WORKSHOPS: Please select your choice of workshop for Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon as soon as you are able, by following the link here <http://bit.ly/OFMonline2021>

PRAYER PORTAL: This year's conference will include several opportunities for prayer. As well as times during the gathered worship, there are online prayer resources available, provided by Yvonne Bell, Jo Gallant and Sue Wallace, as an inspiration for encountering God at times which suit you. The Prayer Portal can be accessed here ofmonline.weebly.com. There will also be opportunities for confidential intercessory prayer - prayer requests can be made via our Chaplain Kathryn Fleming chaplain@onfiremission.org and will be shared, in confidence, with our dedicated team of intercessors led by Sr Teresa-Lucia Sutton-Becker.

RESOURCE CENTRE: Accessible liturgies for worship sessions can be downloaded at ofmonline.weebly.com

CHAPLAINCY: If you would like to speak with Kathryn Fleming, our OFM Chaplain, about your experience of OFMonline2021, or talk through anything it raises for you, email: chaplain@onfiremission.org. If you need to arrange a meeting by phone, contact Hannah on 07885719780 and we can pass on your request to Kathryn. All conversations and enquiries will be treated confidentially in line with our safeguarding policy.

Bev Mason Informed by some of the theology and thinking of the Keynote address, in this workshop we are going to look at applied theology, building confidence and resilience and the practical steps we might want to take/are taking to be missional and ministering in a post-pandemic world. The workshop will be interactive drawing upon the learning and insights from all. Workshop 2 Growing Faith: Evangelism with Children & Families Richard Peers Fr Richard will look at the way in which our understanding of learning in schools has developed over the last half century. He will look at ways that parishes and families can apply this in nurturing young Christians. He will particularly reflect on the spiritual experience of children and how to encourage children in their spiritual lives. He will reflect on his many years' experience of teaching Mindfulness/meditation to children from 4 – 18 year olds. The session will include practical suggestions for families and churches to enable children to take Christianity seriously and personally. Workshop 3 Healing the Soul: The Sacrament of Reconciliation Kathryn Fleming "God forgives you, forgive others, forgive yourself" Most of us carry truck-loads of baggage around with us, which prevent us from being the people God calls us to be. In this session (more conversation than workshop) we'll explore some of the background to, and practicalities of the "Cinderella Sacrament" and how the process of naming our guilt and our wounds in the context of the Sacrament of Reconciliation can help us to grasp the truth of the forgiveness God offers so freely. Come armed with questions and we'll see where God takes us!

You'd be surprised how easy it is to make a simple yet effective video for worship. Fr Simon Rundell has been pushing pixels for Jesus for decades and the secret really is that it isn't that hard. In this workshop he'll demonstrate easy to use tools to create effective worship backdrops and liturgies for users of Macs or PCs and prove that it really isn't a dark art. If you can write a document in a word processor then you can create. Join me. In this workshop you have two options - you can either get the feel of the whole thing and that watch it back slowly, pausing when you need; or watch it on Zoom on your phone and have your laptop or desktop (Mac or PC, I'll cover both) with you to walk through it along with me, a sort of Bob Ross with pixels (and I don't have any hair, either)

He holds undergraduate and postgraduate degrees in English literature from Manathema Gandhi University, India, as well as a BA and MA in Contextual Theology from the University of Gloucestershire and an MTh in Practical Theology from Oxford. He has wide experience of working with Anglican communion churches in Asia and Africa. In this workshop, we will discuss working towards the Church of England's vision of a Christ centred and Jesus shaped society in a religiously and ethnically diverse Britain. Simpler, humbler, bolder. Workshop 6 Growing Sustainably: Christian Community and Climate Justice Ali Angus The climate is in crisis and, as Christians, we have a commitment to find ways of caring for all creation. In this workshop, we will explore together how we can create kinder, greener, more sustainable futures in our homes, churches, community and globally. We will be sharing ideas about how we can act to reduce the effects of climate change and explore how we can meet the challenge of walking lightly in the world.
17.00	ON ZOOM: https://zoom.us/j/92640392788?pwd=Zm5SbkFPc0tjMXQ5NDM3L1puYkg4Zz09 Meeting ID: 926 4039 2788 Passcode: 961475	Bible Study 'Being Interrupted in the Gospel of Mark' Ruth Harley and Al Barrett Using creative tactics for reading scripture, and thought-provoking questions, we will explore two stories from Mark's gospel: Jesus' encounter with the Syrophoenician woman, and his encounter with Zacchaeus. What do these stories tell us about power - its use and misuse? What clues do they offer about what a fresh approach to mission could look like? What do they have to say to an institutionally anxious church, struggling to address its own prejudices? Come and join the conversation as we reflect together on how the gospel of Mark can help us to re-imagine the church's mission, as agents of renewal. Al Barrett and Ruth Harley are the authors of "Being Interrupted: reimagining the church's mission from the outside, in". (SCM Press, 2020).
